RE: Rescission of administrative review in part of antidumping duty order on wooden bedroom furniture from the People's Republic of China (A-570-890)

1. Commerce has rescinded the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on wooden bedroom furniture from the People's Republic of China (A-570-890) covering the period 01/01/2011 through 12/31/2011 in part with respect to the firm in the company-details table appended to the bottom of this message. You are to assess antidumping duties on this merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the period 01/01/2011 through 12/31/2011 at the cash deposit rate required at the time of entry. Liquidate all entries for the firm listed in the company-details table appended to the bottom of this message.

2. Notice of the lifting of suspension of liquidation of entries of subject merchandise covered by paragraph 1 occurred with the publication of the notice of rescission in part of administrative review (77 FR 52311, 08/29/2012). Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of wooden bedroom furniture from the People's Republic of China you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current rates.

3. The injunction with court number 10-00352 discussed in message number 0362304 dated 12/28/2010, is applicable to entries of the heritage court bench (model 800-4800) which were imported by Legacy Classic Furniture, Inc. Accordingly, until further notice, continue to suspend liquidation of these entries until liquidation instructions are provided.

4. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties is required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

5. Upon assessment of antidumping duties, CBP shall require that the importer provide a reimbursement statement, as described in section 351.402(f)(2) of commerce's regulations. The importer should provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation of the entry. If the importer certifies that it has an agreement with the manufacturer, producer, seller, or exporter, to be reimbursed antidumping duties, CBP shall double the antidumping duties in accordance with the above-referenced regulation. Additionally, if the importer does not provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation, reimbursement shall be presumed and CBP shall double the antidumping duties due. If an importer timely files a protest challenging the presumption of reimbursement and doubling of duties, consistent with CBP's protest process, CBP may accept the reimbursement statement filed with the protest to rebut the presumption of reimbursement.

6. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by O4:RP.)

7. There are no restrictions on the release of this information.
