4. The notice of lifting of suspension of liquidation for entries of subject merchandise covered by paragraph 1, paragraph 2 and paragraph 3 occurred with the publication of the final results of administrative review (77 FR 51754, 08/27/2012). Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of wooden bedroom furniture from the PRC, you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current cash deposit rates or per-unit amounts.

5. The injunction with court number 10-00352, in message number 0362304, dated 12/28/2010, is applicable to entries of the heritage court bench (model 800-4800) which were imported by Legacy Classic Furniture, Inc. Accordingly, until further notice, continue to suspend liquidation of these entries until liquidation instructions are provided.

5. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties is required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

6. Upon assessment of antidumping duties, CBP should require that the importer provide a reimbursement statement as described in 19 CFR 351.402(f)(2). The importer should provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation of the entry. If the importer certifies that it has an agreement with the manufacturer, producer, seller, or exporter to be reimbursed antidumping duties, CBP should double the antidumping duties in accordance with the above-referenced regulation. Additionally, if the importer does not provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation, CBP should presume reimbursement and double the antidumping duties due.

7. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by O4: RP.)

8. There are no restrictions on the release of this information.
