RE: Preliminary affirmative determination, in part, of critical circumstances in the antidumping duty investigation of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from the PRC (A-570- 026)

1. On 11/05/2015, Commerce published in the Federal Register (80 FR 68504) its affirmative preliminary determination of critical circumstances in the antidumping duty investigation of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from the People's Republic of China.
2. Commerce is scheduled to issue its preliminary determination in the antidumping investigation of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from the People's Republic of China by 12/21/2015. At that time and if the determination is affirmative, Commerce will direct CBP to suspend liquidation of all appropriate entries of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from the People's Republic of China that are entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after 90 days before the date of publication in the Federal Register of the preliminary determination. CBP shall require a cash deposit equal to the estimated preliminary dumping margin reflected in the preliminary determination published in the Federal Register.
3. The products covered by this investigation are described in message 5189304, dated 07/08/2015.
4. This investigation has been assigned investigation number A-570-026.
5. If there are any questions by the importing public regarding this message, please contact the Call Center for the Office of AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce at (202) 482-0984. CBP ports should submit their inquiries through authorized CBP channels only. (This message was generated by OVII:NMD.)
