1. On 08/12/2016 (81 FR 53424) Commerce determined that critical circumstances do not exist with respect to certain subject imports from Brazil. As a result of Commerce's final negative determination of critical circumstances, CBP should terminate the suspension of liquidation for all shipments from the following company of certain corrosion-resistant steel products from Brazil that were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, before 03/22/2016 (the date of publication of Commerce's affirmative preliminary determination notice in the Federal Register.) All such entries should be liquidated without regard to antidumping duties (i.e., refund all cash deposits).
